To Whom it May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Daniel Cendejas Garibay, an exceptional student currently in the 11th grade at Coalinga High School. Based on his character, achievements and academic success, I am confident that he will thrive in any academic or professional environment.

Throughout his high school journey, Daniel has demonstrated both commitment and growth, improving academically each school year. As he's progressed through high school, Daniel has raised his GPA each year and is on track to complete his junior year with six A's and 1 B. He has challenged himself with a demanding academic schedule that includes accelerated, dual enrollment, and college preparatory courses such as Web Page Design, Spanish III, Integrated Math III Accelerated and History 17 A. This trajectory illustrates not only intellectual capability but also a strong sense of perseverance and a willingness to engage with increasingly rigorous coursework.

Since being in high school, Daniel has received Principal's honor roll three times, demonstrating determination and strong academic performance. Daniel is also on track to meet A-G eligibility requirements and has made significant effort towards his community service hours, supporting ELD students in their classes. His academic upward trend, combined with growing leadership and extracurricular involvement, makes him a promising candidate for success in any professional and/or academic environment.

In addition to his academic accomplishments, Daniel has also gained valuable life skills through his experience as a student mentor in the library and supporting ELD students. This responsibility has helped him practice time management, empathy, responsibility, and adaptability as he balances his academic commitments. This role has given him the ability to be dependable, organized and a team-player, qualities that I believe will serve him well in any future endeavor.

Overall, Daniel is a respectful, kind and hardworking student who I am confident will continue to excel in college and beyond. His work ethic, dependability, and commitment to learning will make him an ideal candidate for this opportunity. I wholeheartedly make this recommendation knowing that he will be an asset. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.
